Dedication

W. Neal Hoadley

In appreciation for your guidance as our advisor and friend during these past four years, we thank you for a belief in inherent goodness, a faith in our youth, and we, the Class of '58, dedicate to you, Mr. Hoadley, our yearbook.

To you, Mr. Breen, in gratitude for the unfailing patience and deep understanding which you have manifested as our principal, we offer our grateful recognition.

We offer to you, Mr. Roberts, our sincere thanks for encouraging us to pursue a higher level in life, to enrich our interest with beauty and art, and to seek the true essence of life, each for himself.

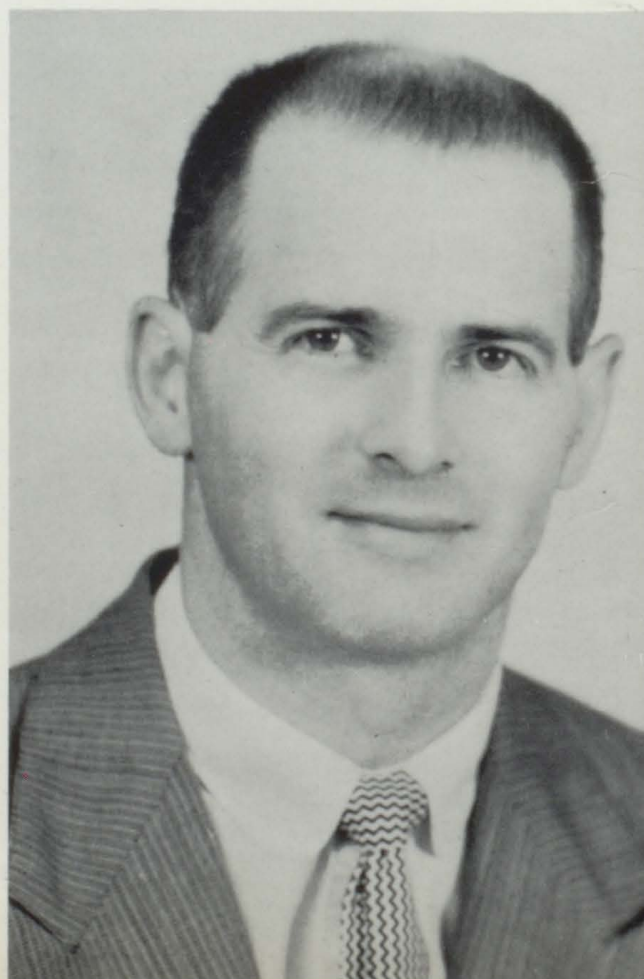

Principal's Message

Schools, like other social institutions, are a product of the society in which they exist. I am happy to state that the Class of 1958, as represented on the pages of this Deer Leap, reflects a very healthy and positive attitude of the Bristol community toward its schools. Your academic and co-curricular accomplishments will endure as a memorable standard for our undergraduates. I extend the very best wishes of the faculty and administration for your success in the future.

Superintendent's Message

That which we acquire with most difficulty we retain the longest, as those who have earned a fortune are commonly more careful of it than those by whom it may have been inherited.

Class Poem

When the sun sets in the west,
A glow there still remains:
A pathway to the towering crest--
This crest, the symbol of our aim.

The unknown fate that guards the summit,
A figure but in God's eyes known,
'Tis with courage we approach it
For each must face his fate alone.

In days to come, in spots unknown,
Our memories will remain.
We take them now; they are our own,
For we'll not walk this way again.

Anna Cousino and Anne Ryan

Class Song

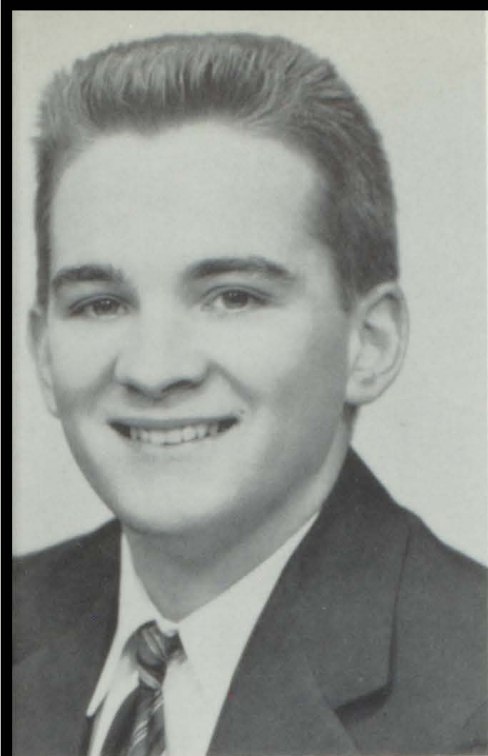

Tune: "Till We Meet Again"

Friendship's wealth we've shared in Bristol High;
Golden dreams we know will never die.
These we guard so carefully in our treasure chest of memories.

Friendship's ties are always hard to break,
But we must when Life's wide road we take.
Yet there's hope you'll not forget
The Class of '58.

Time has come to wish you all goodbye;
Graduation day is drawing nigh.
As we go along Life's way,
You will surely hear us say,
"Hail to thee, dear friends and school divine.
May all hopes and joys be always thine.
'Til then our thoughts will be with you
Here in Bristol High.

Class

On June 12, 1958, the senior class of Bristol High School appeared before the pearly gates to give testimony of its 12 years of life to St. Peter.

Our life started in September, 1946. We began with 41 members, the following of which still remain with us: Anne Ryan, Anne Wright, Joyce Thomas, Joan Trudo, Sally Wisell, Theresa Duclos, Anna Cousino, Kirk Shadrick, Brenda Burpee, Donald Lattrell, Michael Burke, Peggy Paine, Judy Devino, Bradley Snow, Judy Bristol, Jack Williamson, Burton Weaver. We were crowded into the largest room, but even this was too small. We were separated. One half was taken with Mrs. Retell to the Town Hall, while the other half remained with Mrs. Jackman. But our separation was short lived. In June, we joined together to go to the recreation field for a picnic.

Our guardian angel our second year was Mrs. Wright. It was during this year that we gained Virginia Morgan. This year, we went on a picnic up on the mountain with the third grade.

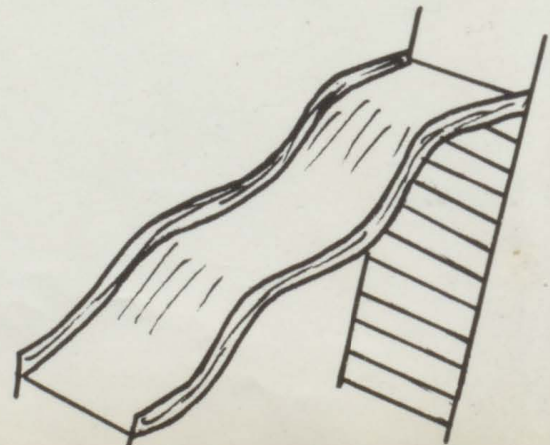

Miss O'Connor took guardianship over us in year three of our life. It was during this year that we gained and lost Mary Ann Page, and lost Bradley Snow. We began to show ambition this year. The girls made a pillow slip and many holders. The boys sold the holders and sold tickets on the pillow slip. The money was to help pay for the bus which took us on our picnic to Ethan Allen Park and the Fleming Museum. On the last day of school we were all treated to an ice cream cone with chocolate sprinkles.

In the fourth grade we went upstairs where Mrs. Trombley waited to take us into her care. Virginia left us during this year and Bradley returned. We also gained Betty Young. In the spring we again returned to Ethan Allen Park for our picnic.

The next fall we were passed on to Mrs. Gregory. Our big project this year was our United States notebooks, which kept us busy all year. As a relief from that strain, we went on a picnic to Aldrich's pasture.

For our sixth year we went across the road to Howden Hall. Mrs. Kimball was our guardian angel. Kickball was the rage that year, and every other kick the ball landed over the bank. We sponsored a food sale which brought us money to pay for our picnic, which we had at Paine's camp.

Grade seven was a big change. Arithmetic was now math, our papers were folded lengthwise, and we had more than one teacher. Our head guardian was Mrs. Whitcomb. Our treasury was increased by funds from selling salt-water taffy. During this year we graduated from kickball to square dancing, and in the spring we had our picnic at Ethan Allen Park and then went to the YMCA pool for a swim.

History

Year number eight of our life found Mr. Hoadley as our guardian. During this year we regained Mary Ann Page and lost Betty Young and Joan Trudo. This was a busy time in our life. We had two dances, three food sales and a raffle. We also sold address labels. It was in this year that we began to realize our dramatic ability, and we put on a play concerning Book Week for the P. T. A. It was a big success, and we gave a repeat performance to the high school assembly. In the spring we all went to Lake Dunmore on a picnic.

We became freshmen and this year brought us Bob Atkins, Scott Hallock, Reggie Orvis, Edith Noble, Dorothy Butterfield, Clarence Cousino, Bob Stearns, Deanna Gardner, and Judy Hoag. Virginia Morgan rejoined us. The seniors brought timid little us before their judge and tried us. We survived, but our angel, Mr. Hoadley, will never be the same after having his Algebra I class interrupted with the ringing of alarm clocks. After the shock of our initiation we regained our strength to sponsor a Western Dance, which proved to be a big success. We also had a raffle and food sale, which added more to our treasury. In the spring we became quite extravagant as we put on our spring dance, the theme of which was Blue Heaven. Again we went to Lake Dunmore for our picnic.

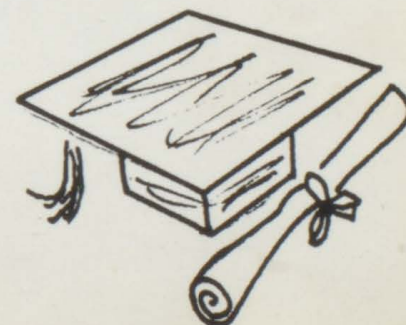

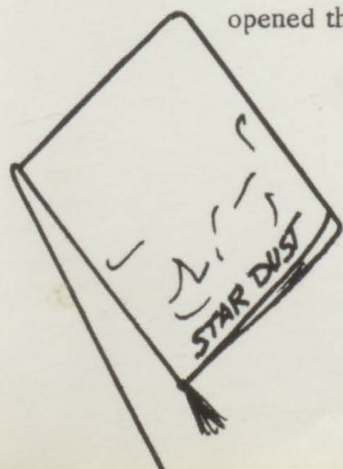

In year ten, we were given the guardianship of Mr. Thergesen and Mr. Kelliher. The reputation of our Western Dance was so widespread that we again donned our cowboy boots. This one proved to be as successful as the previous year. We set a precedent when we sponsored a Dedication Ball at which we received our class rings. In the spring we had another food sale and put on another dance, Mystic Night. This year our picnic was at Bayside.

The eleventh year of our life saw Mr. Hoadley back with us. We had a Western Dance again, but its novelty had worn off. Our big success was the prom. Star Dust was the theme, and our orchestra was the Hi Hatters. It was the most beautiful prom ever. We relaxed after our big production with a picnic and roller skating at Bayside.

Our senior year was guided by Mr. Hoadley. We started out with initiation of our new freshmen, and congratulated them for their sportsmanship by giving a dance in their honor. Our senior play, "A Doctor in Spite of Himself," was a big success, and we celebrated with a party at Paine's camp. In February we sponsored a record hop, which gave a little more aid to our treasury. During this year we gained and lost Barbara Francis, and Joan Trudo rejoined us.

St. Peter, seeing that the twelve years of the class of 1958 deserved recognition, opened the pearly gates, and we entered into the future.

Anne Wright and Peggy Paine
